

Course name (Chinese):

Course name (English):

Chinese Foreign Investment Law

Credits/class hours:

2/36

Introduction (Chinese):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

Introduction (English):

This course aims to make students understand comprehensively Chinese law and policy involving foreign investment after one semester study; to make students be able to discuss and analyze China's issues on law and policy involving foreign investment; to make students interested in exploring relevant issues on China's law and policy involving foreign investments. The main contents include: 1. History and Status quo of foreign investment law in the world; 2. Relationship between national investment law and international investment law; 3. History of China's law and policy involving foreign investments; 4. Legal system of China's law and policy involving foreign investments; 5. New Proposed foreign investment law Foreign investment law: comparative perspective; 6. Domestic Dispute Settlement related to foreign investment.

Teaching method:

lectures and discussion

Examination method:

term paper and student presentation

Reference:

Chen An, Problems of International Economic Law(second edition), Higher Education Press, 2007.

Wenhua Shan, China and International Investment Law-Twenty Years of ICSID Membership, Brill/Nijhoff, 2015.

Krista Nadakavukaren Schefer, International Investment Law, Text, Cases and Materials Edwar Elgar Cheltenham, 2015.

Relevant academic articles from website